Section 3.10 Power to Collect and Settle My Obligations

My Agent may collect all rights and benefits to which I am entitled now or in the future, including rights to cash payments, property, debts, accounts, legacies, bequests, devises, dividends, and annuities. In collecting my obligations, my Agent may demand, sue for, arbitrate, settle, compromise, receive, deposit, expend for my benefit, reinvest, or otherwise dispose of these matters as my Agent determines appropriate.

My Agent may use all lawful means and methods to recover these assets and rights, to qualify me for benefits and claim benefits on my behalf, and to compromise claims and grant discharges regarding the matters described in this Section. My Agent may convert my assets into assets that do not disqualify me from receiving benefits, or my Agent may divest my assets altogether. In any divestment action or asset conversion, I direct my Agent to avoid disrupting the dispositive provisions of my estate plan as established by me prior to my incapacity.

Section 3.11 Power Regarding Governmental Benefits

All powers described in this Section are exercisable with respect to all federal and state (or any subdivision thereof) programs existing when this power of attorney was executed or for which I become eligible after this power of attorney is executed. The power of attorney shall extend to any state in which I live when my Agent's powers become effective.

I appoint my Agent as my Representative Payee for the purposes of receiving Social Security benefits. My Agent may collect all benefits payable to or for my benefit by any governmental agency or body, such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Medicaid, Medicare, and Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI). My Agent shall have the full power to represent me and deal in all ways necessary concerning rights or benefits payable to me by any governmental agency including Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Medicaid, and Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI).

In addition, my Agent may deliver and convey any or all of my assets to the trustee or trustees of the trust as well as designate the trust as payee of any income to which I may be entitled.

Section 3.12 Power Regarding My Retirement Plans and Other Employee Benefits

My Agent may exercise all rights and collect all qualified retirement benefits to which I am entitled now or in the future. Specifically, my Agent may:

elect any form of payment from my qualified retirement plans and to withdraw benefits on my behalf from the IRAs and retirement plans;

make, exercise, waive, or consent to any and all elections and options that I may have regarding contributions to qualified retirement plans, investments, and administration of the retirement plans, and distribution or other forms of qualified retirement benefits available to me;

convert all or a portion of a qualified retirement plan to a Roth IRA under Internal Revenue Code Section 408A (or other similar qualified retirement plan);

with respect to any contribution to an IRA or Roth IRA, recharacterize all or any part of the contribution so that the contribution or any part of the contribution is treated as made to the other type of IRA;

with respect to any Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) account, conduct any business with the TSP, including the authority to sign any TSP-related document; and borrow money, purchase assets from any of my qualified retirement plans, and sell assets to any of my qualified retirement plans if the plan authorizes these actions.

My Agent may make primary and contingent beneficiary designations, whether revocable or irrevocable, change primary and contingent revocable beneficiary designations, and consent or waive consent in connection with the designation of primary and contingent beneficiaries and the selection of joint and survivor annuities under any employee benefit plan. But my Agent may not directly or indirectly designate a greater share or portion of any benefit to my Agent than my Agent would have otherwise received unless all other beneficiaries under the qualified retirement plan consent to the change in beneficiary designation.

For all purposes of this Section, qualified retirement plan means a plan qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 401 (including any plan administered by the TSP), an individual retirement arrangement under Section 408 or Section 408A, or a tax-sheltered annuity under Section 403. ### Section 3.13      Power Regarding Bank, Financial, and Credit Union Accounts

My Agent may establish bank, financial, or credit union accounts of any type in one or more banks, financial institutions, or credit unions that my Agent may choose. My Agent may modify, terminate, make deposits to, write checks on, make withdrawals from, and grant security interests in any account in my name or for which I am an authorized signatory, except accounts held by me in a fiduciary capacity. This authority may be exercised whether the account was established by me or for me by my Agent. My Agent is authorized to negotiate, endorse, or transfer any check or other instrument with respect to any account; to contract for any services rendered by any bank, financial institution, or credit union; and to execute, on my behalf as principal, any agency or power of attorney forms furnished by a bank, financial institution, or credit union with respect to accounts with the bank, financial institution, or credit union that appoint the bank, financial institution, credit union, or any person as my agent.

If more than one Agent is serving concurrently under this power of attorney, the signature of any one of them is sufficient to endorse checks or drafts and to draw checks or drafts on my financial accounts.

Section 3.14 Power Regarding Credit Cards

My Agent may establish credit card accounts of any type that my Agent may choose. My Agent may make purchases with; take cash advances, balance transfers, and otherwise borrow money on; make payments toward the outstanding balance of; modify; and terminate any credit card account in my name or for which I am an authorized user, except accounts held by me in a fiduciary capacity. This authority may be exercised whether the account was established by me or for me by my Agent. My Agent is authorized to contract for any services rendered by any credit card company and to execute, on my behalf as principal, any agency or power of attorney forms furnished by a credit card company with respect to accounts with the credit card company that appoint the credit card company or any person as my agent.

If more than one Agent is serving concurrently under this power of attorney, the signature of any one of them is sufficient to make purchases with and payments toward the outstanding balance of any of my credit card accounts.

Section 3.15 Power Regarding Safe-Deposit Boxes

My Agent may contract with any institution to rent a safe-deposit box in my name. My Agent may have access to any safe-deposit box in my name or for which I am an authorized signer. This Section will apply whether the contract for the safe-deposit box was executed by me alone, jointly with others, or by my Agent in my name. My Agent may also add contents to or remove contents from a safe-deposit box, or terminate any rental contract for a safe-deposit box.

Section 3.16 Power to Prosecute and Defend Legal Actions

My Agent may institute, supervise, prosecute, defend, intervene in, abandon, compromise, adjust, arbitrate, settle, dismiss, and appeal from any legal, equitable, judicial, or administrative hearings, actions, suits, or proceedings involving me in any way. This authority includes claims by or against me arising out of property damage or personal injury suffered by me, or caused by me or under circumstances such that the resulting loss may be imposed on me. My Agent may otherwise engage in litigation involving me, my property, or my legal interests, including any property, interest, or person I am or may be responsible for.

Section 3.17 Power to Loan and Borrow

My Agent may make secured or unsecured loans to any person, entity, trust, or estate on my behalf, for any term or payable on demand, with or without interest. My Agent may enter into or modify the terms of any mortgage, deed of trust, or security agreement made in connection with any loan and may release or foreclose on the mortgage, deed of trust, or security.

My Agent may borrow money on my behalf at interest rates and on other terms that my Agent considers advisable from any person, institution, or other source. If my then-acting Agent is a corporate fiduciary, this includes loans from its own banking or commercial lending department.

My Agent may encumber my property by mortgages, pledges, and other hypothecation and has the power to enter into any mortgage or deed of trust even though the term of the mortgage or deed of trust may extend beyond the effective term of this power of attorney.

My Agent may borrow money for any purpose on any life insurance policy owned by me on my life even though the term of the loan may extend beyond the effective term of this power of attorney. My Agent may grant a security interest in the policy to secure the loan. In this regard, my Agent may assign and deliver the policy as security. No insurance company will be under any obligation to determine the loan's necessity or how my Agent applies the loan proceeds.

Section 3.18 Power to Renounce or Resign from Fiduciary Positions

My Agent may resign or renounce any fiduciary position I hold now or in the future including personal representative, trustee, guardian, attorney in fact, and officer or director of a corporation, as well as any governmental or political office or position. In so doing, my Agent may file an accounting with the appropriate court of competent jurisdiction or settle based on a receipt, release, or other appropriate method.

Section 3.19 Power to Disclaim or Release Property Interests

My Agent may renounce and disclaim any property or property interest or power to which I may become entitled by gift, testate succession, or intestate succession. My Agent may release or abandon any property interest or power that I may own or hold, now or in the future. This includes any interest in, or right over, a trust, including the right to alter, amend, revoke, or terminate the trust. My Agent may disclaim an elective share in any estate or under any Will. But my Agent may not make any disclaimer that is expressly prohibited by the law or other provisions of this power of attorney.

Section 3.20 Power Regarding Insurance

My Agent may purchase, maintain, surrender, or collect:

all kinds of life insurance or annuities on my life or the life of any one in whom I have an insurable interest;

liability insurance protecting my estate and me against third party claims; hospital insurance, medical insurance, Medicare supplement insurance, custodial care insurance, and disability income insurance for me or my dependents; and casualty insurance insuring my assets against loss or damage due to fire, theft, or other commonly insured risk.

My Agent may pay all insurance premiums, select any options under the policies, increase coverage under any policy, borrow against any policy, pursue all insurance claims on my behalf, and adjust insurance losses. This authority applies to both private and public plans, including Medicare, Medicaid, Supplemental Security Income and Workers' Compensation.

My Agent may select and amend the primary and contingent beneficiary designations under insurance policies insuring my life. My Agent may also select and amend primary and contingent beneficiary designations under any annuity contract in which I have an interest; but my Agent may not directly or indirectly designate to himself or herself a greater share or portion of any benefit my Agent would have otherwise received unless all other beneficiaries under the policy consent to the change.

My Agent may decrease or terminate coverage under any insurance policy insuring my life. My Agent may receive the cash value received if the policy is decreased or terminated and dispose of the cash value.

Section 3.21 Power Regarding Taxes

My Agent may represent me in all tax matters and proceedings before any agent or officer of the Internal Revenue Service, state and local authorities and in any court, for all periods.

My Agent may:

prepare, sign, and file all federal, state, and local tax returns including income, gift, FICA, and payroll tax returns on my behalf;

prepare, sign, and file claims for refunds, requests for extensions of time to file returns or pay taxes, extensions and waivers of applicable periods of limitation, and protests and petitions to administrative agencies or courts (including the United States Tax Court);

sign consents and agreements under Internal Revenue Code Section 2032A or any successor section and consents to split gifts, closing agreements, and any power of attorney form required by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority with respect to any tax year;

pay taxes due, collect and dispose of refunds as my Agent determines appropriate, post bonds, receive confidential information, and contest deficiencies determined by the Internal Revenue Service or any state or local taxing authority;

exercise any election I have under federal, state, or local tax law and allocate any generation-skipping tax exemption to which I am entitled; and engage representation for me in any tax proceeding by attorneys-at-law, Certified Public Accountants, enrolled agents, and other licensed tax professionals.

Section 3.22 Power to Make Gifts

My Agent may make gifts on my behalf. To make gifts, my Agent may withdraw assets from any trust created by me and from which I may withdraw assets.

For purposes of this power of attorney, my Agent may forgive any debts owed to me, and any debt forgiven will be considered a gift to the debtor.

As mentioned in Section 3.11, my Agent may gift or otherwise spend down my estate for Medicaid eligibility and planning.

My Agent may make gifts on the following terms and conditions:

(a) Continuation of My Gifting

My Agent may honor pledges and continue to make gifts to charitable organizations that I have regularly supported in the amounts I have customarily given. My Agent may continue any gifting program initiated by me prior to the time I became incapacitated.

My Agent may make special occasion gifts to my estate plan beneficiaries, family members, or friends, in equal or unequal amounts, that reflect my past giving and my relationship with these individuals.

(b) Gifts to My Agent

I specifically authorize gifts to my Agent, but only a Special Agent appointed under Section 6.03 may make gifts to my Agent.

(c) Gifts in Excess of the Annual Federal Gift Tax Exclusion

If my Agent determines that gifts that exceed the annual federal gift tax exclusion are in my best interest and the best interests of my beneficiaries, my Agent, by unanimous vote if more than one Agent is then serving, shall appoint a Special Agent unrelated by blood or marriage to any Agent to review the facts and circumstances and to decide whether these gifts should be made. I recommend that my Agent select an independent certified public accountant, attorney at law, or corporate fiduciary to serve as the Special Agent under such circumstances.

Neither my Agent nor the Special Agent appointed by my Agent will be liable to any beneficiary for exercising or failing to exercise the discretion to make gifts.

(d) Gifts for Tuition

My Agent may prepay tuition for any of my beneficiaries. My Agent shall make the payments directly to the educational institution or by establishing and contributing to a Qualified State Tuition Program established under Internal Revenue Code Section 529.

(e) Gifts for Medical Expenses

My Agent may pay medical expenses for any of my beneficiaries as permitted under Internal Revenue Code Section 2503(e). My Agent shall make the payments directly to the medical provider.

(f) Methods of Making Gifts

My Agent may make gifts of my property under this Section outright, in trust, or in any other manner that my Agent considers appropriate.

By way of example and without limiting my Agent's powers under this Section, my Agent is specifically authorized to make gifts by creating tenancy in common and joint tenancy interests or establishing irrevocable trusts including charitable or non-charitable split-interest trusts. My Agent may make gifts by establishing and contributing my property to corporations, family limited partnerships, limited liability partnerships, limited liability companies, or other similar entities and by making gifts of interests in any of those entities.

To accomplish the objectives described in this subsection, my Agent may establish and maintain financial accounts of all types and may execute, acknowledge, seal, and deliver deeds, assignments, agreements, authorizations, checks, and other instruments. With respect to a claim existing in favor of or against me based on or involving a gift transaction on my behalf, my Agent may prosecute, defend, or submit to arbitration, as well as settle, propose, or accept a compromise. My Agent may intervene in any related action or proceeding.

My Agent may perform any other act my Agent considers necessary or desirable to complete a gift on my behalf under this Section.

(g) Standard for Making Gifts

In making gifts on my behalf, I want my Agent to consider the history of my gift making and my estate plan. To the extent reasonably possible, I direct my Agent to avoid disrupting the dispositive provisions of my estate plan as established by me prior to my incapacity.

(h) Ratification of Gifts

I specifically ratify any gifts made by my Agent under the terms of this power of attorney.

Article Six

Administrative Powers and Provisions

This Article contains certain administrative powers and provisions that facilitate the use of the power of attorney and that protect my Agent and those who rely upon my Agent.

Section 6.01     Release of Information

My Agent may release and obtain any information regarding my financial investments and taxes, including any information regarding stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, bank accounts, tax returns, retirement accounts, pension plans, and any other documents or information regarding my financial affairs and taxes. This information may be obtained from my attorneys at law, financial advisors, insurance professionals, accountants, stockbrokers, stock transfer agents, and any other persons having such information.

I release these persons or entities from any liability for releasing the above-referenced information to my Agent in reliance on this Section.

If my Agent is an attorney at law or other accounting or financial professional, the professional regulations of my Agent's profession and federal law may prohibit my Agent from releasing information about my financial affairs to others if I am a client of my Agent. This instrument, therefore, is a limited waiver of any privilege (such as the attorney-client privilege) that I have established with any Agent as a client for the sole purpose of permitting my Agent to perform his or her duties under this power of attorney.

Section 6.02     Nomination of Conservator

If appointment proceedings are ever initiated for Conservator, I concurrently nominate the person then serving or named to serve as my Agent under this power of attorney.

If any person I have nominated is appointed Conservator, I request that the court grant powers permitting my Conservator to administer my estate unsupervised and without adjudication, order, or direction of any court.

Section 6.03     Appointment of a Special or Ancillary Agent

If any Agent is unwilling or unable to act with respect to any property or any provision of this power of attorney, my Agent shall appoint, in writing, a corporate fiduciary or an individual to serve as Special Agent as to the property or with respect to the provision. The Special Agent appointed must be an individual that is not related or subordinate to me or any beneficiary within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code Section 672(c). My Agent may revoke this appointment at will.

If my Agent determines that it is necessary or desirable to appoint an Ancillary Agent to act under this power of attorney in a jurisdiction other than this one, my Agent may do so. In making an appointment, my Agent may sign, execute, deliver, acknowledge, and make declarations in any documents that may be necessary, desirable, convenient, or proper in order to carry out the appointment.

A Special or Ancillary Agent may exercise all powers granted by this power of attorney unless expressly limited elsewhere in this power of attorney or by the instrument appointing the Special or Ancillary Agent. A Special or Ancillary Agent may resign at any time by delivering written notice of resignation to my Agent. Notice of resignation will be effective under the terms of the notice.

Section 6.04 Agent Authorized to Employ My Attorney

My Agent may employ the attorney who prepared this power of attorney or any other attorney employed by me in connection with my estate plan or business matters and I specifically:

waive any conflicts of interest that might arise through this employment; authorize the attorney to make full disclosure of my estate plan and business to the Agent; and authorize the attorney to accept the engagement.

Section 6.05 Fiduciary Eligibility of Agent

My Agent is eligible to serve in any other fiduciary capacity for me or for my benefit, including trustee, guardian, conservator, committee, executor, administrator, or personal representative.

Section 6.06 Reimbursement for Expenses and Compensation

My Agent may pay himself or herself, from my assets, fair and reasonable compensation authorized by law for services performed under this power of attorney and, in addition, my Agent may reimburse himself or herself for all reasonable expenses incurred for carrying out any provision of this power of attorney.

Section 6.07 Liability of Agent

I release and discharge any Agent acting in good faith from any civil liability and from all claims or demands of all kinds whatsoever by me, my estate, and my heirs, successors, and assigns arising out of the acts, forbearances, or omissions of my Agent, except for willful misconduct or gross negligence. This protection extends to my Agent's estate, heirs, successors, and assigns.

Section 6.08      Amendment and Revocation

I may amend or revoke this power of attorney at any time. Amendments to this document must be made in writing by me personally (not by my Agent) and must be attached to the original of this document and recorded in the same county or counties as the original if the original is recorded.

The written notice of revocation or amendment to my Agent must be:

personally delivered and receipt of delivery received; mailed postage prepaid by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of my Agent; or sent by express mail or commercial expedited delivery providing a receipt for such delivery.

Section 6.09      Resignation

My Agent may resign by executing a written resignation delivered to me or, if I am mentally disabled, by delivery to any person with whom I am residing or who has my care and custody.

Section 6.10      Signature of Agent

I suggest my Agent use the following form when signing documents on my behalf pursuant to this power:

Tracey Ann Walker by [enter Agent's name], her Agent.

Section 6.11      Interpretation

This power of attorney is a general power of attorney and should be interpreted as granting my Agent all general powers permitted under the laws of State of Georgia. The description of specific powers is not intended to limit or restrict any of the general powers granted to my Agent.

Section 6.12      Use of Agent Nomenclature

The word Agent and any modifying or equivalent word or substituted pronoun includes the singular and the plural cases, as well as the masculine, feminine, and neuter genders.

Section 6.13 Third Party Reliance

No person who relies in good faith on the authority of my Agent under this power of attorney will incur any liability to my estate; my heirs, successors, and assigns; or to me.

Any party dealing with my Agent may conclusively rely upon an affidavit or certificate of my Agent that:

the authority granted to my Agent under this power of attorney is in effect;

my Agent's actions are within the scope of my Agent's authority under this power of attorney;

I was competent when I executed this power of attorney;

I have not revoked this power of attorney; and my Agent is currently serving as my Agent.

Section 6.14 Effect of Duplicate Originals or Copies

If this power of attorney has been executed in multiple counterparts, each counterpart original will have equal force and effect. My Agent may make photocopies (photocopies includes facsimiles and digital or other reproductions, referred to collectively as photocopy) of this power of attorney and each photocopy will have the same force and effect as the original.

Section 6.15 Governing Law

This power of attorney's validity and interpretation will be governed by the laws of the State of Georgia. To the extent permitted by law, this power of attorney is applicable to all my property, whether real, personal, intangible, or mixed; wherever located; and whether or not I now or in the future own the property.

Section 6.16 Severability

If any provision of this power of attorney is declared invalid for any reason, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

Section 6.17 Shall and May

Unless otherwise specifically provided in this document or by the context in which used, I use the word shall in this document to impose a duty, command, direct, or require, and the word may to allow or permit, but not require. In the context of my Agent, when I use the word shall, I intend to impose a fiduciary duty on my Agent; when I use the word may, I intend that my Agent is empowered to act with sole and absolute discretion unless otherwise stated in this document.

Article Seven

Declarations of the Principal

I understand that this power of attorney is an important legal document. Before executing this power of attorney, my attorney explained the following information to me.

The power of attorney provides my Agent with broad powers to dispose of, sell, convey, and encumber my real and personal property.

The powers will exist for an indefinite period unless I revoke the power of attorney or I have limited their duration by specific provisions in the power of attorney.

This Durable Power of Attorney will continue to exist during my subsequent disability or incapacity.

I have the power to revoke or terminate this Durable Power of Attorney at any time.
