LOT 116 - The Starving Artist

Description

Artist : Rhonda Miller

Artwork Details:

16 x 20 Acrylic on Canvas board

The starving artist encompasses the passion and pain that create the core of every creator. There is a fear of exposing the rawest parts of ourselves to the judgement and criticism of the public. The encouragement an artist derives from a person appreciating their work is one of the most satisfying experiences to be felt. And the pain of rejection goes to the soul of the creator.

One-of-a-kind, original painting, all artist's rights are reserved.
